Dear Mr. Dulles,

Last Friday I accepted an assignment from Gene Black as industrial consultant to the World Bank. This is the pending matter that I referred to in my previous letter to you.

It was not an easy decision to make as I had a strong pull towards further discussion with you. However I finally concluded that, in my own opinion, at least, I might fit better by past experience in the World Bank. It also seems to me to have at least some of the constructive nature of a job for CIA.

I should like to thank you very much for your interest in attempting to piece something out for me to fit at in CIA.

I hope our paths will cross in Washington.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours

Lee Austin
